

Neighborhood Credit Union Board Candidates Biographical Information

John Logan

John Logan is currently Vice Chairman and has served on Neighborhood Credit Union's Board of Directors since 2014. Additionally, Logan served as an associate director to Neighborhood Credit Union's Board of Directors from 2008 to 2014. He retired from the United States Postal Service where he was a PCES (postal career executive service) manager with over 37 years of government service including 4 years as an Air Force Officer. Logan is an entrepreneur with an extensive business background and holds an MBA degree in general business. He is the owner of JAL Consulting, Inc., a real estate consulting firm located in the DFW area. Logan states that he is invested in the Credit Union and desires the opportunity to "serve and continue the great Neighborhood Credit Union tradition." He has been a member of Neighborhood Credit Union since 1975.

Clarissa Salas

Clarissa (Lisa) Salas has served on Neighborhood Credit Union's Board of Directors since 1996. During her time on the Board she has served as Secretary-Treasurer and has maintained an excellent attendance record at board meetings. Salas worked for the U.S. Postal Service for 30 years and retired as the Real Estate Specialist for the Southwest Facilities Service Office in 2012. She has received numerous awards from Postal management and peers. She remains active at St. Pius X Catholic Church, where she serves as a Eucharistic Minister and for the past three years has also served on the Pastoral Council. Salas would like to remain active with the Neighborhood Credit Union's Board of Directors in order to continue to represent a voice for our growing membership. She has been a member of Neighborhood Credit Union since 1980.

Janis Frum

Janis (Jan) Frum served on the former Pegasus Community Credit Union Board of Directors from 1993 through the merger in 2016. She was elected to the Neighborhood Credit Union Board of Directors in 2016. After graduating from The University of Texas in Austin with a BBA in Accounting, she began her career as a CPA in public accounting with Price Waterhouse. From there, she spent over twenty-six years with Mobil Oil and ExxonMobil, retiring in 2004. After six weeks of retirement, Frum embarked on a new career and went back to work for EXCO Resources as their SOX Financial Compliance Director. She currently works for SND Energy as their Controller. Frum is very active in her church and loves spending time with her three granddaughters. Frum wishes to continue her board service in order to represent Neighborhood Credit Union's membership and ensure continued credit union growth.
